THE LID WAS OFF

SO R. C. PLUME AND PARTY CAUGHT THE LIMIT MORE THAN ONCE AT BIG BEAR

That surely was an ideal vacation trip that Robert C. Plume and wife and Frederic Butts took to Big Bear Lake last week. They were gone six days and they crowded about a month's enjoyment into that time. They went the City Creek route, the shortest there is to Big Bear, only 98 miles from Glendale. The drive was a beautiful one, through orange and lemon and walnut groves, apricot, peach, plum and pear orchards between here and Highland, 8 miles northeast of San Bernardino, then up and up along winding roads to 8,000 feet above sea level. Then came a slight descent into the Big Bear basin. Of course, they fished, and with proverbial fisherman's luck. There were Robert and Frederic seated side by side, Robert hauling in trout after trout and Frederic seeing not even a ripple above his hook. But suddenly came a change. There was a strong pull on Frederic's line and after a bit of skillful playing by the fisherman, up came a sparkling, 4-pound salmon trout. And so it went on the luck constantly varying. Both caught the limit more than once and they had the pleasure of seeing Dr. Hogue, who was up there at the same time, pull out a 4½-pound trout. They didn't have to bother with hunting up a crowded camp and engaging quarters. They took along one of those marvels of utility, the combined auto bed and tent, and thus lodged in their very own hotel, conducted on the European plan. They came back the way they went, with never a mishap to mar the pleasure of the trip.

THE INJURED FIREMEN

Doctors A. O. Conrad and T. C. Young, who are in attendance on members of the Glendale Fire Department who were injured in the automobile accident at Central and Los Feliz Road this morning, report:

J. P. Purrier, of 141 North Kenwood street, of Station No. 1, suffered a fracture of the right ankle and several skin wounds and that he is doing nicely.

Ed Fairfield of 1519 South Glendale avenue, Station No. 2, sustained a fracture of the left clavicle and numerous bruises. He is doing well.

Chief A. H. Lankford, of 223 North Cedar street, Station No. 1, has a severe injury to the left hip, one rib broken, and skin wounds. He, too, is doing well.

TO QUIT GOVERNMENT SERVICE

F. P. Allen of 1323 East Wilson avenue, who has been in charge of the Federal Bureau of Live Stock Markets in Los Angeles and who came here from Philadelphia where he held a similar position under the government, has resigned his position and is considering an attractive offer from a local packing company as buyer. The government would like to retain his services as head of the Live Stock Bureau in Salt Lake City, but he prefers to remain in California. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allen are hoping that the change he is making will not take them from Glendale where Mrs. Allen has been active in the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association and is a highly valued member.

INSTITUTE WORK

REV. CHARLES H. SCOTT ON FACULTY OF EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTES ON THIS COAST

Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, will leave next Sunday for Asilomar where he will take part as one of the faculty in an Epworth League Institute which will open there on Monday and be attended by about one thousand young people. The work will be divided into classes of forty-minute periods and distributed among the twenty members of the faculty. He will have charge of classes in Social Welfare and Demonstrations. The institute will last a week and he will return Saturday and occupy his pulpit the next Sunday. After spending a week at home he will go to Huntington Beach to participate in a similar institute at which an attendance of 1200 is expected. He will have the morning watch period, the opening hour of the day, which will be given to Bible study, and will also have charge of the social features of the evening. A series of Epworth League institutes is being held all over the country and these are the two largest on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Scott is looking forward to them as pleasant work but strenuous.

DIRIGIBLE R-34 DUE IN U. S. TOMORROW

WAS WITHIN 835 MILES OF NEWFOUNDLAND AT ONE O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CAPE RACE, Newfoundland, July 3.—The White Star liner, Megamtic has reported the receipt of a wireless message at six o'clock this morning (Greenwich time) from Dirigible R-34 giving its position as 1000 miles west of East Fortune, Scotland.

LONDON, July 3.—The Air Ministry has announced that Dirigible R-34 was nearly 1500 miles out at five o'clock this morning (New York time). It is following a westerly course above the fog banks. It is making slower time than was planned but is expected to reach the United States some time tomorrow.

General Seeley announced in the House of Commons that the dirigible was within 835 miles of Newfoundland at one o'clock this afternoon (New York time).

MOONEY DEFENSE LEAGUE ORDERS STRIKE

TO START TOMOROW TO ENFORCE DEMAND "FOR FAIR, IMPARTIAL TRIAL OF THOMAS MOONEY"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 3.—The Chicago Mooney defense league today issued a formal call for a four-day strike starting tomorrow to demand "fair, impartial trials for Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings now imprisoned for life by framed-up testimony." Mooney was convicted of throwing a bomb during the passage of a patriotic parade in San Francisco.

KAISER TO BE TRIED IN LONDON

OTHERS "WHO COMMITTED APPALLING INFAMIES" ALSO TO BE TRIED LLOYD-GEORGE TELLS COMMONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, July 3.—Lloyd-George in addressing the House of Commons today announced that the Kaiser will be brought to trial soon and that the trial will be held in London.

It was the first official announcement regarding the trial since the peace treaty was signed and refuted reports that the allies would not enforce treaty provisions as applied to the Kaiser.

Lloyd-George said that not only the Kaiser but "other officers who committed appalling infamies will be tried." Commenting on the peace terms he said: "They are in many respects terrible but terrible were the deeds that justified them."

He declared the German army is now unable to disturb even "feeblest neighbors," and that the limit of reparation is "Germany's ability to pay."

He said the restoration of German colonies was impossible because of the ill-treatment the Germans had accorded the colonies while in control. The premier opposed putting any "predominantly German territory under Polish rule."

The announcement of the plans for the Kaiser's trial created the greatest interest. The attitude of the Dutch government on the extradition of the Kaiser is still not clear. Some authoritative circles believe that Holland would not refuse a formal demand. Unofficial dispatches report unusual activity at Amerongen Castle where the Kaiser is interned. It is believed the Kaiser intends to move, probably to some other port of Holland.

CHIEF'S CAR WRECKED

SPEEDING TO FIRE IT STRIKES ANOTHER CAR, OVERTURNS, THREE HURT

A small grass fire at 318 El Bonita avenue this morning led to serious consequences. The alarm was turned in a little after 9:30 and soon Chief A. H. Lankford's car was speeding toward the scene, with the chief at the wheel and Ed Purrier and Capt. Ed Fairfield hanging on. With siren shrieking constant warnings the red car flew down Central avenue. At Los Feliz a car was approaching from the west driven by Mr. Honeyfelt, a taxi man, who had two ladies in his auto as passengers. He says he was driving slowly and heard the siren on the chief's car, but connected it with some premature celebrations of the Fourth, hence was not looking out for the meeting. The moment he glimpsed the speeding red car he swerved to the right. The red car struck his on the left wheel, breaking it and the fender, then slid fully a hundred feet, turning on its side and then when it came to a stop, upside down. All the occupants were considerably hurt. They were picked up at once, and hurried to Thornycroft, where it was found that Chief Lankford had a badly bruised hip and leg with a possible fracture, Fairfield a broken collarbone and one or more ribs broken or cracked, and Purrier a broken ankle. All were bruised considerably, besides.

Mr. Honeyfelt drove his car, battered as it was, to a garage for repairs, then reported at once to the police, not shirking any blame that may attach to him. The chief's car was considerably wrecked and will require a thorough overhauling.

While the accident was quite serious and most regrettable, yet there is room for devout thanksgiving that no fatalities resulted.

MR. AND MRS. SEYMOUR SMITH RETURN FROM DELIGHTFUL AUTO TRIP IN NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Smith arrived late Wednesday night and are glad to be at home again although they have had a perfectly wonderful auto tour, in which they covered 2200 miles in one month. Two weeks of the time were spent at Camp Curry where they met many Glendale people and had a royal good time. They also made stops of several days at Del Monte, Monterey, San Francisco and Big Basin in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Both are looking and feeling well and have benefited by the outing. They are at the home of J. G. Huntley who is in the east and writes of the very hot weather he encountered in Chicago and of a continuation of the dose in Detroit until the temperatures were suddenly reversed and the weather became cold by comparison. Mrs. Huntley and Virginia will join him later when he completes the business he went east to transact and is free to jaunt around with them.

Noble, who has had her hemstitching shop at her residence on Harvard street for the past five or six months, has found it necessary on account of her growing business to move to the business section, and, in company with her sister, Miss Sara Hoiseth, has rented the store room at 209 East Broadway. Miss Hoiseth comes from Hollywood, where she conducted a millinery and ladies' and men's furnishing store, and he will put in a stock of millinery and notions at the above address. The shop at 209 East Broadway should greatly attract women who love dainty wearing apparel.

Their son, Alvin Esterly, who lived opposite them on Adams street, has bought property at 363 Salem street, of which he will soon take possession.

Their soldier son, W. W. Esterly, was quietly married May 18th to Miss Grace McPherson of Los Angeles, the girl to whom he was engaged when he went to war.

MORGANS GO CAMPING

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morgan and family of 1125 South Central avenue and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webster of Park avenue are going camping tomorrow for the week-end at San Onofre near San Diego. Mrs. Collins, sister of Mrs. Morgan, and family, may join them or may go to Laguna instead. The Morgans have had a pleasant surprise recently in a visit from their old family physician, Dr. Wm. B. Graves from East Orange, N. J., who, with his family and the nurse who has assisted him for 25 years, is touring the Pacific Coast. It is his first visit and he is delighted with everything he sees and anxious to inspect all the typically Californian things he has heard about, as, for instance, the "coolers" and solar heaters. They came by Santa Fe, but will make their sight-seeing trips by auto and return by a northern route as Mrs. Graves has relatives whom they will visit in Seattle.

4TH OF JULY AT PALACE GRAND

A great treat has been provided patrons of the Palace Grand Theatre as a Fourth of July attraction in "Daddy Longlegs" with Mary Pickford in the leading part. This sweet story by Jean Webster made a great hit in book form and when interpreted by the art of Mary Pickford it is altogether delightful and sure to attract every reader of the novel.

E. H. Learned, wife and daughter Edith of Grandview District, start today on a six weeks' trip to the north for work and pleasure. They will make their way leisurely toward Asilomar, visiting friends along the way, arriving there about the 15th. Mrs. Learned and Edith will spend 10 days at Asilomar, the former as a representative of Central Christian Bible School and C. W. B. M. Auxiliary, then visit among friends while Mr. Learned spends a few weeks at picking fruit on some of the big ranches about Turlock, Merced and other shipping centers in that region. While they are absent Willard Learned and his grandfather will look after the work on the home ranch.

CHURCH NIGHT

WEEKLY FEATURE OF RELIGIOUS LIFE OBSERVED WITH CHANGED PROGRAM

The usual Wednesday evening program of pleasure and work at the Central Christian Church was carried out last night, with a variation, the Woman's Missionary Society conducting the prayer service in connection with their own regular monthly business meeting. Mrs. R. M. Jackson, State Secretary, made a very interesting address on the topic, "Our Negro Neighbor, and also outlined the work for the coming year. Mrs. F. W. Pigg contributed a contralto solo, a darkey dialect song, which was most enjoyable. A paper prepared by Mrs. F. B. Mattice was read by Mrs. Heacock, the scripture lesson was read by Rev. Cole and there was singing by the entire congregation. It was an hour well spent. The weekly church supper, which preceded this meeting, was attended by nearly 60 people and there were 56 present at the missionary meeting, following which there was a choir rehearsal under the direction of Mrs. Calvin Whiting, the new leader.

NO HONOR TO LOSE

Germany has signed the peace treaty, and it is a peace not to their liking. So far as actual hostilities are concerned, the war is ended; but it must be remembered that while Germany has signed the treaty in fact, she has not signed it in spirit. The peace treaty, like the treaty with Belgium, is considered a "worthless scrap of paper."

Although conquered and apparently down and out, Germany is a resourceful nation awaiting an opportunity for revenge. They were forced to sign the treaty, but the Germans, as a people, admit neither error nor regret in the suffering they have caused the world, nor for the debt that posterity must pay.

They prate about German honor, but there is no such thing. What was once a strong, powerful and honored nation forfeited all claims to honor by ravishing Belgium, murdering innocent women and children by air bombardment, the bombing of hospitals, the sinking of the Lusitania and other non-combatant boats, and other atrocities that would fill a volume. Germany has bathed the world in blood and now says that in being forced to sign the peace treaty the German honor has been violated.

Had Germany been victorious, how about the terms she would have imposed upon the Allies? Terms of the treaty signed Saturday are as a love billet compared to what would have been forced upon the Allies, and yet the Huns have the nerve to prate about their honor.

Were it not for the fact that more lives would have been sacrificed upon the altar of German greed, the war should not have ended until the Allies had taken every foot of Germany and its possessions. For many years to come Germany will be dangerous, constantly watching for an opportunity to be revenged. The present generation has an undying hate for those who deprived them of their lust for world power, and they will instill this hatred into the next generation.

The Allies must be constantly on guard lest there be formed an alliance between the Germans and the Bolshevists of Russia which by a reign of terror, will attempt to undermine all forms of government opposed to them. "On Guard," must be the watchword of every loyal subject of the Allies that Hun revenge may not wreck civilization.—South Pasadena Courier.

CROSSING THE AMERICAN DESERT

Another pioneer, as intrepid and as determined as any who has preceded him, is about to seek, in his own peculiar manner, to conquer the Great American Desert. Following for a portion of the way at least, the historic trail memorable because of the tragedies of Mountain Meadows and Donner Lake, a United States Army pilot is preparing to drive an aeroplane from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with the design of stopping but once in the flight, and incidentally, if successful, distancing any previous non-stop achievement. The announced itinerary, according to the latest plans of the army air service, is from long Island, New York, in a direct air line, as nearly as may be, to a point, not definitely designated, 500 miles west of North Platte, Nebraska. North Platte was at first decided upon as the first and only stopping place en route. This town is about 1500 miles from the starting point, and about 1250 miles from the objective point, San Francisco, California. The North Platte stop, if successfully negotiated according to program, would, prior to the recent achievement of the British aviators, Alcock and Brown, have surpassed the distance record previously made by the flight of the naval planes from Newfoundland to the Azores. But the British fliers covered a sustained distance of 1980 miles in their flight, thus adding several hundred miles to the record. Captain Roy N. Francis, who is to pilot the army plane, hopes to exceed this distance slightly before his stop for fuel.

While the undertaking, even in the light of recent events of a similar nature, seems stupendous and epoch-making, it is probably fraught with no greater possibilities than were the efforts of the earlier pioneers in their determination to cross the prairies and the desert in their rush to the California gold fields in 1849. The means of traveling then employed, the covered "emigrant wagon" drawn by horses or oxen, are, of course, no more comparable with the means about to be employed than is the time consumed for the journey in those days with the time which will presumably be required for the proposed trip. Months were occupied, in the earlier period, to make the tedious passage from the Missouri River to the Sierra foothills in California, and the record of those undertakings, some of which were successful and some disastrous, marks a clearly defined page in American history. Mark Twain, in his distinctive literary production, "Roughing It," gave to the world what is, perhaps, the most entertaining and instructive description of scenes and incidents along what is known as the Overland Trail, although his experience as a stagecoach passenger along that route post-dated, by a few years, the trek of the gold hunters of '49. The period was that of hostile tribes or bands of American Indians, road agents, buffalo herds, the old Concord four-horse stagecoach, and the pony express. All these have gone, of course, crowded out in the rapid march of civilization which spanned the great gap between the middle and far west. The driving of the "golden spike," which marked the completion of the first trans-continental railway, fifty years ago last May, relegated to the discard the last cross-country stagecoach, and ended the career of the pony express.

For half a century, almost, or until the advent of the automobile and its adaptation to long-distance traffic, the railway coach has served the tourist acceptably and well. But now there appears upon the horizon a new rival, to which distance and time mean little. Spanning oceans and continents almost in a day, it fills even the sophisticated with amazement and wonder, and bids fair, very soon, to add to its already long list of conquests that of the American Desert, now submissive, figuratively, but which, until a comparatively few years ago, defied all who sought to traverse its forbidding wastes.—C. S. Monitor.

MODERNIZING STATE GOVERNMENT

That the movement for modernization of state governments through reorganization is constantly gaining momentum is clear to all those who keep in touch with government affairs. Recent correspondence conducted by Taxpayers' Association of California with governing officials of all the states of the union indicates that while in a majority of instances reorganization programs have not taken definite form, yet the subject is being studied with increasing interest in every part of the country. Some of the states already have accomplished complete or partial reorganization, and the work that has been done is causing other states to desire to make progress along this line. As a sample of the observations which may be noted from time to time, with increasing frequency, the following is quoted from "Public Business," the bulletin of the Detroit Bureau of governmental research:

Illinois has rearranged 125 scattered bureaus and offices of the old state administrative machinery into an orderly series of nine departments, which have proven a great success.

Indiana has pased an act departmentalizing the state administration, grouping forty-eight bureaus, offices and commissions into nine departments.

Idaho has just consolidated some forty-six boards and commissions.

Iowa, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and California have made studies of their state organizations and are considering similar proposals.

The Detroit bureau of governmental research has recently completed an investigation of the state government of Virginia, made at the request of the governor, and for which the last legislature provided funds—with a view to suggesting a more effective organization and possible economies.

Michigan has already overhauled its control of prisons, reformatories and public utilities.

But after-the-war needs, etc., will require more taxes, and more state service.

As a prerequisite should not Michigan's machinery be placed in the best possible position for rendering the best service at the least cost?

It might be noted that Massachusetts is gradually working out a program whereby its state government is to be consolidated into not to exceed twenty departments. A survey preparatory to re-organization will be submitted to the next session of the Denver legislature Wisconsin is consolidating its agricultural and conservation agencies. In November next a commission will report a plan of reorganization to the governor of Montana. A consolidation commission, with the backing of the governor, submitted and reported a proposed reorganization to the last sesion of the Oregon legislature. A special commission likewise has reported with reference to the consolidation of various governmental agencies in the state of Connecticut.

Although the effort to work out a reorganization of the California government through the last legislature was not successful, the setback was only temporary. Indeed, the failure of the legislature to act has strengthened the demand for a reorganization, and there appears to be no doubt that when a reorganization proposal is submitted to the people it will be ratified by them by a large majority of the votes cast.—Monrovia News.

A GLENDALE MERCHANT WHO BELIEVES IN PROGRESSIVENESS

Although the store has long been favorably known for modern business methods, A. G. Spohr, the proprietor of Spohr's Rexall Drug Store, never loses an opportunity to adopt better ways of serving his customers.

A plan has now been adopted which, in the past has been confined to the larger manufacturers and chain stores.

He has in conjunction with other live Rexall druggists in Southern California obtained a drug store business advisor to bring into working the most modern methods to enable the store to give better service.

This business advisor, Mr. A. M. Thompson, has for many months studied most modern drug store merchandising methods as employed in the eastern Liggett Stores, the world's most famous Rexall Stores and The United Drug Company of Boston, manufacturers of the Rexall Products, by whom Mr. Thompson is employed.

That this is a new idea in the drug merchandising world, fostered by the United Drug Company and the progressiveness of Southern California Rexall Druggists, of whom Mr. Spohr is one, is evidenced by the fact that they requested the United Drug Company to give them first benefits of this work.

To enable the salespeople to obtain the most out of this work the Rexall Drug Store will close tonight at 8:00. The entire organization will enjoy a banquet and sales meeting at the Casa Verdugo. Modern business methods and better means of serving the store's customers will be discussed.

Mr. Spohr is to be congratulated upon his progressive business ideas for his whole buying public will profit by them. The store will also close at 1 p. m., Friday, the 4th, for balance of the day. 257t1

WE WILL be right here tomorrow to get you started right with plenty of oil, gas, good cheer. What about that extra inner? Yours for a Glorious Fourth, sincerely, Lyman & Lund, Glendale Vulcanizing Plant, 141 S. Brand. 257t1

GREATEST BLISS IS CONGENIAL WORK

There is no greater happiness in life than doing the work you love. It matters not what the work is—to some women it is embroidery, or writing a book, or baby tending, or studying chemistry, or cooking, or keeping a house polished. It does not always happen that we have great ability in the thing we enjoy doing—although the chances are that it is so. For nothing stimulates you to continued effort in a piece of work more than the consciousness that you do it well.

And so if you are unhappy—genuinely unhappy—in the work you are doing, try to find out what it is that you would prefer to do. if there is nothing else in your mind, then perhaps your discontent is only temporary. But if you sincerely wish to do some other definite piece of work, you have a legitimate grievance and you owe it to yourself to pave the way for a new shot at a new occupation.

PASADENA WOULD HAVE OPEN-AIR SCHOOLHOUSE

One of the important needs of the Pasadena city school system in the opinion of the sanitation classes of the Pasadena High School is open air school buildings designed for anemic and tubercular pupils, says the Pasadena Star-News.

During the school year that is just closing the sanitation classes under the direction of Miss Martha Winslow, the teacher, built a large model of a proposed open air school.

Everything about the model was made by the students, even to the little dolls that impersonate the pupils. The model shows the arrangement of a school with study room, rest room, dining room, weighing room and bath rooms.

Those who have made investigation tell us there never has been a period in the history of the world when so many of its inhabitants were as comfortably housed as now. In fact this old world is every year becoming a more desirable place in which to live.

SOME REMARKS

A recent attempt to raise a sum of money for a charitable purpose brought forth the following heart-breaking reply:

"I have your letter requesting a donation for what you consider a very worthy cause. I flatter myself that I have a spirit of loyalty and generosity. I have contributed to each and every object that has been presented to me, but I have to decline helping your cause along for the following reasons:

"I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, walked on, sat on, rolled over, flattened out, and squeezed; first by the United States government for the federal war tax, the excess profits tax, the Liberty loan bonds and the bonds of matrimony; in New Jersey for the state tax, the highway tax, the income tax, the auto tax, school tax, cat tax, and syntax, and every society and organization the inventive mind of man can invent to extract what you may or may not possess, from the Society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., the women's relief corps, the men's relief, the stomach relief, the wifeless, the husbandless, the childless, the conscienceless, the navy league, the Red Cross, the green cross, the double cross, and every other cross of all colors, and by the children's home, the Dorcas society, and the hospital.

"One of my mills burned down, the henhouse and board walk blew away and, because I will not sell all that I have to go beg, borrow and steal, I have been cussed and discussed, boycotted, talked to and talked about, lied to and lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined, and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what in h——is coming next."—Munsey's.

TUJUNGA

A public meeting was called on Monday evening at Bolton Hall to take action on the proposed raise in water rates that is to come before the R. R. Commission on July 9th. Money was raised to engage a lawyer to take the matter up for the water users in this district.

Simon Haversteck has been serving on the jury in Los Angeles the past two weeks.

News was received Wednesday of the death of Mrs. L. H. Batchelder who formerly lived here on Sunset Boulevard, at her home in Los Angeles. Services were held at the Booth & Boyelson chapel, 1147 South Flower street, on Thursday afternoon.

Mr Bradford who resides on Stephens Way, was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday, and removed to a hospital in Los Angeles for treatment.

Don't kill the toads, either the horned or common. If you don't know how useful they are in your garden, either get a book and read up their traits or study them at hand. They are very destructive to aphis and all other insects that invade the garden. They do not make holes in the yard, but occupy those made by some rodent. They are very wise and will remember if you drive them away from an accustomed place and get out of it if they see you coming. Keep all you can get in your garden, and they will well repay you for your forbearance.

The Woman's Club held its monthly meeting in Bolton Hall Friday, June 27th. This being the yearly meeting the election of officers for the new year resulted in Mrs. D. C. Dean, president; Mrs. Cora Linaberry, vice-president; Miss Zoe Gilbert, secretary; Mrs. Fairfield, treasurer, and Mrs. Darlington, Kitchen Queen. Mrs. Linaberry read a very interesting paper on Our Native Birds, which brought forth much discussion and many experiences. Then followed "Seven Simple Desserts," by Mrs. Darlington, who had her samples with her. All of them pleased the palate and it was very difficult to say which was the best. She also gave the recipes, and method of preparing. July 24th will be the date for another meeting, the program to be announced later.

Mr. Fitzgerald, whose home is on Michigan Highway, was a visitor there for a few days from Huntington Park.

Miss Zoe Gilbert has purchased a new piano and it was put in place on Thursday.

Mr. Adams hopes to open his cannery by the 10th of July and all who are desirous of working there the coming season are requested to leave their names with Mr. Dean at the store.

Mr. Overholty and daughter of Riverside have rented the home of Capt. Hatch for a year.

Mrs. Wall and daughter, who have occupied the Westell house for a number of months, have returned to Glendale.

D. C. Dean and Mr. Niemeyer were in Long Beach on Tuesday.

After Supper—What?

Most of your time is mortgaged to work, meals, and sleep. But the hours after supper are yours, and your whole future depends on how you spend them. You can fritter them away on profitless pleasure, or you can make these hours bring you position, money, power, real success in life.

There's a big job waiting for you—in your present work, or any line you choose. Get ready for it! You can do it without losing a minute from work, or a wink of sleep, without hurrying a single meal, and with plenty of time left for recreation. You can do it in one hour after supper each night, right at home, through the

International Correspondence Schools

Hundreds of thousands have proved it. The designer of the Packard "Twin-Six" and hundreds of other Engineers climbed to success through I.C.S. help. The builder of the great Equitable Building, and hundreds of Architects and Contractors won their way to the top through I.C.S. spare-time study. Many of this country's foremost Advertising and Sales Managers prepared for their present positions in spare hours under I.C.S. Instruction.

For 28 years men in offices, stores, shops, factories, mines, railroads, in the Army and Navy—in every line of technical and commercial work—have been winning promotion and increased salaries through the I.C.S. Over 100,000 men are getting ready right now in the I.C.S. way for the bigger jobs ahead.

Your Chance Is Here

No matter where you live, the I.C.S. will come to you. No matter what your handicaps, or how small your means, we have a plan to meet your circumstances. No matter how limited your previous education, the simply written, wonderfully illustrated I.C.S. textbooks make it easy to learn. No matter what career you may choose, some one of the 280 I.C.S. Courses will surely suit your needs.

Make Your Start Now!

When everything has been made easy for you—when one hour a day spent with the I.C.S. in the quiet of your own home will bring you a bigger success, more comforts, more pleasures, all that success means—can you afford to let another single priceless hour of spare time go to waste? Make your start right now! This is all we ask: Without cost, without obligating yourself in any way, put it up to us to prove how we can help you. Just mark and mail this coupon
